

THE GUTHRIE DAILY LEADER

VOLUME XLX

HOME

THE THIRD OKLAHOMA THURSDAY, MAY 1, 1916

TWO CENTS

NUMBER 93

HALF MILLION RUSSIANS ARE NOW IN FRANCE

METZ, CAPITAL OF LORRAINE, VACATED BY CIVIL POPULATION

BERLIN ADMITS ALLIES HAVE MADE INROADS

FRENCH DRIVE GERMANS FROM POSITIONS NEAR DEAD MAN'S HILL.

(BULLETIN.)

London, May 4.—Reuter's Amsterdam correspondent telegraphs that Metz, the capital of Lorraine, is being evacuated by the civil population. It is located fifteen miles north of the fighting line, and forty miles east of Verdun. Russian troops are engaging Germans in that sector.

(BULLETIN.)

Marseilles, France, May 4.—Another large contingent of Russian troops, the fourth since April 28, arrived here today. It is now estimated that one-half million Russian troops have been removed from the Eastern to the Western front.

German Reply Received Today.

Washington, May 4.—Secretary Lansing announced today that a dispatch received from Ambassador Gerard, said the ambassador expected to receive the German reply to his American note today.

French Make New Gains.

Paris, May 4.—The advance of the French in the neighborhood of Dead Man's Hill continued during the night. The advances made yesterday were increased and consolidated. Many prisoners, ammunition and arms of the Germans were captured.

Germans Admit French Advance.

Berlin, May 4.—It was officially announced today that the French at last obtained a foothold to the German advance post, south of Dead Man's Hill.

Nine Killed in Zeppelin Raid.

London, May 4.—The Zeppelin raid on the northeast coast of England and southeast coast of Scotland Tuesday night resulted in fifty-four casualties. Nine were killed and twenty-seven injured. This announcement was made officially to the hundred families who were dropped.

The statement in part reads:

"The Zeppelin raid last night caused a considerable extent on the eastern coast. At least five or six airships actually crossed the coast."

Reports from reliable sources made a various times before the night at many points, some of which had been at Rattray Head, Scotland, down to the north coast of Norfolk, would point to the possibility of a greater number of airships having been dropped off our coasts. The raids, however, made only two attempts to penetrate inland.

Washington, May 4.—President Wilson, Secretary Lansing and Col. E. M. House held a long conference tonight at the white house. It is understood that the submarine situation was discussed, but Secretary Lansing said later that he had received absolutely no word from Berlin regarding the character of the German note, while press dispatches said probably would be handed to Ambassador Gerard tomorrow.

The president and his advisers are keeping their minds open while they wait for the German note. A long delay very evidently has been made in sending the note, however, and it was authoritatively stated that the note would have to be cleared by the State Department before it could be sent.

President is Unalterable.

The president is known to be absolutely determined to adhere strictly to the position assumed by the United States in its demands that Germany immediately declare and effect an abandonment of its present methods of submarine warfare.

No decision at this time will be reached by the Associated Pressman or any other official body, who a decision of intention to issue a general submarine ban, as soon as the Germans have done all they can to offer more or less no guarantee whatsoever would be had of the safety of their ships. Some of the officials believe that the best course of action is to let the Germans know that if they do not give up their submarine warfare, the Allies will withdraw the war.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Admiral Jellicoe, the commander-in-chief of the British fleet, has issued a general order to all naval forces that the British fleet will withdraw from the sea unless further notice is given.

England, May 4.—Ad